

HB 1009 -- Qualified Voters in Community Improvement Districts

Sponsor: Schupp

For the purpose of electing the directors of the board, this bill revises the definition of a "qualified voter" in a community improvement district to include only a registered voter, unless no registered voters reside within the district. In this case, an owner of property within the district that is not exempt from the assessment of taxes by the district is qualified to vote.